The Lenape Regional Curriculum Consortium
Library Media Specialist In-Service

Join us on Friday, February 17, 2017 for a special in-service for library media specialists. Our day will begin at 8:00am and conclude at 1:00pm in the library at Kenneth R. Olson Middle School in Tabernacle, NJ. Please bring your laptop and a lesson or program to share during our best practices session.

“Present it with a Picture: Infographics in your Library”  8:15am – 9:15am
Learn how to use infographics to enhance your library webpage and to promote visual literacy in your lessons and assessments.

Facilitated by Carlie Cattanea, Lisa Bakanas, and RoseAnn Musto
Library Media Specialists at Cherokee High School

“Booking on a Bike: From Inspiration to Perspiration”  9:30am – 10:30am
Learn how I navigated through the cRazy idea that I knew would enhance my school library. We’ll discuss how you, too, can afford it, convince the BOE, and market it.

Facilitated by Arlen Kimmelman, Ed. M., M. A.
School Librarian & Librology Techbrarian at Clearview High School

“Cracking the Code: Computer Science in the Library”  10:30am – 11:30am
Ready, Set, Code! Set up a program in your library for Hour of Code and help students learn basic coding skills. Learn about various coding resources for students and teachers.

Facilitated by Marci Zane
Library Media Specialist at Kenneth R. Olson Middle School

Best Practices Sharing Session  11:45am – 1:00pm
Please bring a lesson, activity, or program idea to share with the group.
